

2012 Holiday Season Performance

Though it is only October, we are already planning for our upcoming community Christmas shows. Our first one scheduled will take place on Saturday, December 3, 2:00pm at Redstone Highlands in North Huntingdon. The second show will be on Saturday, December 10 at Woodhaven Care Center in Monroeville. The show will begin at 2:00. Please arrive by 1:30 to line up for both 2:00pm shows. We have also just been scheduled for Greensburg Care Center on December 17 at 3:30. Please arrive by 3:00. Addresses for these locations will be posted on our website closer to the dates.

Those of you who are new to this, let me explain... We do not have a Christmas recital, but we do spread holiday cheer around the community. We usually do at least 2 nursing home shows each season, and one Norwin community event. The shows are not mandatory, and you may choose which ones you'd like to participate in. We always try to reuse costumes, so many of you will be wearing the same costume from last year's Christmas performances (the same as you wore for the recital opening.)

The following classes will be performing (costume prices also listed):
